THE JAZZ ENGINE — THEME

> "The piano ain't got no wrong notes." — Thelonious Monk. The wrong notes, played with conviction, become the right notes. The difficult practice, practiced consistently, becomes the right practice.

> "If you don't live it, it won't come out your horn." — Charlie Parker. The journal entry that comes from living — from actual difficulty, actual joy, actual presence — that entry is the solo. The horn only plays what the life has earned.

Jazz is not a metaphor for self-care. Jazz is self-care, structured as music.

- Improvisation — responding to what is, not what was planned
- The changes — navigating harmonic transitions that never stop
- The woodshed — deep solitary practice that enables public freedom
- The session — the basic unit of jazz practice: a gathering to play
- Blue notes — the notes that bend, acknowledging difficulty without resolving it
- Standards — the timeless vocabulary that every practitioner knows
