THEME CONCEPT

THE STOIC FIELD
"The Stoics were the original RPG players.
 They had a daily discipline practice, a four-virtue skill tree,
 and boss fights against the passions.
 Marcus Aurelius was a Level 90 philosopher-king running a Level 70 campaign on the hardest difficulty.
 Seneca debugged his code every evening in writing.
 Epictetus was a freed slave who built the most elegant self-care operating system in Western history.
 The Stoic field is the terminal where the character sheet lives."

v44 is the Stoic vocabulary engine:
Ancient philosophy meets modern self-care practice.
Where v43 tracked the dream game,
v44 tracks the waking practice of the trained mind —
the daily discipline, the morning pages,
the evening review, the four virtues as skill upgrades,
memento mori as the ultimate difficulty setting.

UNLOCK MESSAGES — WORD TURNS

memento_mori_badge · ⌀·◉·⌀ MEMENTO MORI
Remember you will die. Not as morbidity — as liberation. The Stoics kept a skull on the desk. Everything you delay is delayed against a finite count.

amor_fati_badge · ∞·●·∞ AMOR FATI
Love of fate. What if everything that happened was exactly what was needed? The Stoic move: take the difficulty and make it the material. No waste.

stoic_signal · —●— STOIC SIGNAL
The Stoic tradition runs 700 years from Zeno to Marcus Aurelius.
Field protocol: morning review, evening audit, training the will.

virtue_lock · ○·▲·○ VIRTUE LOCK Four virtues: Sophia (wisdom), Dikaiosyne (justice), Andreia (courage), Sophrosyne (temperance). The only real upgrades on the character sheet.

discipline_found · ■·■·■ DISCIPLINE FOUND Marcus Aurelius wrote the same reminders for decades. Not because he forgot — because the trained mind requires maintenance.

indifferent_found · —·○·— INDIFFERENT FIELD Preferred indifferents: things outside your control you can reasonably prefer. Your character is the only thing that cannot be taken.

tranquility_gate · ∿·○·∿ TRANQUILITY GATE Ataraxia. Not the absence of feeling but the absence of being ruled by feeling. The feeling is data. The response is a choice.

negative_viz · ⌀·∿·⌀ NEGATIVE VISUALIZATION Premeditatio malorum. When you have already rehearsed the loss, the actual loss arrives to a prepared practitioner.

obstacle_signal · →·■·→ OBSTACLE SIGNAL
"The impediment to action advances action. What stands in the way becomes the way."
— Marcus Aurelius, Meditations 5.20

logos_found · ∞·◉·∞ LOGOS FOUND
The rational principle that runs through everything. The practice is alignment with the logos — thinking, acting, living in accordance with what is.

eudaimonia_badge · ◉·▲·◉ EUDAIMONIA Flourishing. Not happiness as feeling, but happiness as function —

a life fully expressed through its best capacities.

present_wisdom · ∘·◉·∘ PRESENT WISDOM
"The greatest wrong a man can do himself is to live other than in the present moment."
— Marcus Aurelius, Meditations 2.14
