19. FLAVOR TEXT & LORE

"The cave you fear to enter holds the treasure you seek."

– Joseph Campbell

Every journal entry is a step into the cave. Every check-in is a step closer to the treasure. The treasure is not at the end – it is the practice of entering.

"We must be willing to let go of the life we planned so as to have the life that is waiting for us."

– Joseph Campbell

The Hero's Journey begins the moment you stop refusing the call. LOT is the record of that acceptance.

"Not all those who wander are lost."

– J.R.R. Tolkien, The Fellowship of the Ring

September 22 is Hobbit Day. Bilbo and Frodo were born on the same date. Two heroes, one threshold, one journey, one return. The practice is the journey.

"Gilgamesh sought immortality and found instead the knowledge of his own humanity. The quest for permanence always returns the traveler to the present moment."

– riff on the Epic of Gilgamesh, ~2100 BCE

The oldest story is the one you are living. 4,000 years ago, a king wrote it down. You are still writing it.

"Self-care is not a quest you complete. It is a world you build."
