STARLOG ENTRY UNCOMMON Write "captain's log", "starlog", or "mission log" ↳ Every entry is telemetry from the frontier of self.	WARP SPEED RARE Write "warp speed", "hyperdrive", or "lightspeed" ↳ Momentum is not recklessness – it is commitment to trajectory.
SHIELDS UP UNCOMMON Write "shields up", "armor up", or "protect yourself" ↳ Knowing when to raise shields is tactical intelligence.	RED ALERT RARE Write "red alert", "mayday", or "emergency signal" ↳ The journal is the bridge where you hear the body's alerts.

FLAVOR TEXT

"Space: the final frontier. Its five-year mission: to explore strange new worlds, to seek out new life and new civilizations, to boldly go where no one has gone before." – Gene Roddenberry, 1966. Replace Enterprise with yourself.

"Make it so." – Captain Jean-Luc Picard. Not "try it." Not "attempt it." Not "if circumstances allow." Make it so. The practice runs on that grammar.

"The Dark Forest: every civilization is a hunter lurking in a cosmic dark forest. In order to survive, it stays hidden. But the self that hides does not survive." – riff on Liu Cixin, The Dark Forest (2008). Log your signal.

"We are all made of star-stuff." – Carl Sagan, Cosmos (1980). The atoms in your body were forged in stellar explosions. The practice of self-care is a star speaking to itself across 13 billion years.
